AMENDED AGENDA

Council Chambers, N1-110

County Council

1. CALL TO ORDER

Present: Chair Laurie Stringham
Council Member Richard Snelgrove
Council Member Jim Bradley
Council Member Arlyn Bradshaw
Council Member Dave Alvord
Council Member Aimee Winder Newton
Council Member Ann Granato
Council Member Steve DeBry
Council Member Dea Theodore

Invocation - Reading - Thought

Pledge of Allegiance

Council Member Stringham led the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America.

2. CITIZEN PUBLIC INPUT

Mr. Lawrence Horman stated libraries having a physical location is necessary for people of low income because they do not have a digital connection otherwise, and many things specific to finding jobs or working are done digitally. These people also need access to books and copy machines. All of these are things they can only get through a library. There also needs to be as many physical locations as possible because a lot of people are unable to travel to a library if it is a great distance away.

3. REPORT OF ELECTED OFFICIALS:3.1. Council Members

Council Member Theodore stated she attended ToshoCon over the weekend at the Viridian Event Center. It was well-attended and fun. She complimented the Library on hosting that.

Council Member Theodore also spoke about the need for shelter for the homeless and asked to be included in conversations about how to facilitate and make it easier for the homeless population to get resources. She relayed a story of meeting a homeless individual who would not stay in a shelter or at the County's resource centers because they were scary and unsafe, or when she did try to stay at a shelter in the winter, they were full. The individual wanted to work, but did not have the basic needs, i.e. sleep, a place to shower, to be able to get a job. Salt Lake City is so unfriendly to the homeless population. There needed to be a better way to take care of them.

Council Member Alvord stated he took a trip to England and was there when Queen Elizabeth II died. He had the opportunity of observing moments of silence, and hearing church bells ring and cannon salutes. The British loved their queen for the class she exemplified throughout her life, even amidst family scandal. He expressed his admiration for the Queen who held herself with dignity through all those years.

3.2. Other Elected Officials

3.3. Mayor

Mayor Jennifer Wilson stated Welcoming Week is next week. It is a national celebration where communities send the signal to new residents that they are welcome in the community and there are resources available.

Mr. Joseph Genda, New American and Refugee Liaison, Mayor's Office, stated Welcoming Week is an annual event in Salt Lake County. This year's theme is called Where We Belong. It is intended to create a welcoming environment so everyone here can feel at home. Events started last Friday, and are planned throughout the week. A bingo card, with various challenges on it, and a schedule of events are on the New American's website. Every year, the County, cities, and townships sign a Welcoming Week Proclamation. That will be done tomorrow at the Kearns Library. After the signing of that proclamation, there will be a Naturalization Ceremony for people who are becoming citizens. He invited everyone to come and witness that ceremony. He also challenged everyone to go to the website to see what it took to become a citizen and to see how many of the test questions they could get right.

Mayor Wilson reported on a Salt Lake City press conference she attended today with Salt Lake City Mayor Erin Mendenhall and Wayne Niederhauser, State Homeless Coordinator, Utah Office of Homeless Services, on a plan for all levels of government to invest further in affordable housing and housing for homeless individuals. Salt Lake City announced another 400 beds and there will be more investment from it. The State has also invested in this.

The County's intent with building facilities was to create a safer environment for families, and she thought the public was seeing the impacts from those efforts. However, there is a time lag in building that housing and the return investment. Other efforts are being made to find locations and plan better. It is not a perfect system, but progress is being made.
