Pledge of Allegiance

Ms. Nichole Watt, Manager, Council Clerk's Office, led the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America.

2. PUBLIC COMMENT3. REPORT OF ELECTED OFFICIALS:*3.1. County Council Members

Council Member Stewart thanked Mayor Jennifer Wilson for addressing concerns he had with social media. He did not need further reporting based on what he heard.

Council Member Theodore stated she had a tour of the Parks and Recreation operations facility yesterday to get insight about the building and to perhaps model a potential search and rescue building after that building. It was interesting and insightful to see everything at that facility, including a car wash, sprinkler parts, and a repair shop for golf carts, trailers, and equipment, which saves the taxpayers money in the long run.

Council Member Alvord stated he attended a meeting with Council Member Stringham and others, including Darrin Casper, Deputy Mayor of Finance & Administration, staff from Mayor Finance, and bond counsel from Zions Public Finance to talk about removing the food tax. He thought a food tax was the most regressive tax, especially on unprepared food. Since food tax is controlled heavily by State Statute, the Council cannot turn the dial on that now. It would take a few years to do that, with some changes in legislation.

Council Member Stringham stated she has been in discussions at the state level on eliminating the food tax because of bills that just went through the Legislature, and there is appetite by some legislators to do that. This Council could look at changing the allocation of how that went out and how it was shared, so that if one county withdrew and did not charge food tax, it would not affect the other counties.

She also announced that next week is the Utah Recreation and Parks Association Conference. People from Salt Lake County's Parks and Recreation Division will be going to that. The Parks and Recreation Division put in for a few awards. She would like it to come back to the Council and report on that.
